THE LYNCHING IN INDIANA.

The Cincinnati Gazette contains the following dispatch:

LOUISVILLE, Dec. 13.—Between three and four o'clock yesterday morning about seventy-five armed men, wearing scarlet masks visited the jail in New Albany and overpowered the guard, shot Sheriff Fullinlove in the arm, and took possession of the jail. The Sheriff refused to deliver the keys, which were finally found by the maskers, and Simeon, Frank and William Reno, brothers, and Wm. Anderson, the notorious Seymour express robbers, were taken from their cells and hung.

Henry Clark, a prisoner in the jail for killing George Tolle, at Salem, Indiana, was an eye witness of the lynching, and makes the following statement:

The first persons I saw in jail were two men who had on masks of red flannel, or something of the kind—perhaps red handkerchiefs. Heard the men talking to Matthews, the guard, apparently endeavoring to force him to point out the cells. Matthews refused to tell them anything. Then a voice said something about putting a rope around his neck, and the order was given to pull him up. Then heard Nos. 24, 11 and 7 distinctly uttered, and they seemed to have released Matthews. No. 24 was Frank Reno's cell. Number 11 was Chas. Anderson's, and Sim on and William Reno were in No. 7. Then heard some one say, "Bring a rope," and they went to Frank Reno's cell first. Frank said nothing, and heard the words, "Frank Reno, No. 24," and then "Pull him out." He resisted some, and cried, "For God's sake, gentlemen, what are you going to do?" They told him to "dry up," and then tied his hands, and a couple of them grabbed him by the throat, pushing him along. As they got to the top of the stairs he clutched at the bannisters, but made no noise. He died very hard.

After hanging Frank, they went to No. 7, where Simeon and Wm. Reno were. As they opened the door, some one spoke up and said, "What do you want here?" Then I heard something fall, and afterward heard that one of them had been knocked down by Simeon, who had seized the sink lid to defend himself. I then heard the fall of another body as they rushed into the cell. Simeon had been knocked down. Heard him groan. They then took him out, carried him round and hung him. I heard him make no noise.

They then brought out William, and I saw them put a rope around his neck. An order was given for Nos. 3 and 5 (every man seemed to be called by a number instead of by name) to go up and catch the rope. William said: "I am innocent, gentlemen; never done the robbing. Oh, Lord, protect my father and sister." Two men pulled him up. William struggled very hard.

When Anderson was taken out of his cell he asked for time to pray, but was told to shut his mouth, and that they did not want anything out of him. They strung him up, but the rope broke. It was tied again, and he was again pulled up.

The lynchers arrived by the Jeffersonville railroad and departed the same way. They are generally supposed to be the Jackson county vigilance committee. It is understood that Reno and Anderson intended to apply before Judge Bicknell for writs of habeas corpus, saying that they could show that they were not concerned in the Marsfield robbery. The so called vigilants probably got wind of this and hence the terrible tragedy. These four make ten men who have been lynched in Indiana for the robbery of the Adams Express Company. Vol. Elliott, Charles Rosebery and Phillip Clifton having been hanged near Seymour, on the 20th of July last, and a short time after, Frank Sparks, Jno Moore and Henry Jerrell were captured and hanged near the same place.

Capt. C. J. Sewell, the notorious federal guerilla, died in the City Hospital, to-day, of wounds received in his celebrated raid on Shelbyville, in May, 1866.

THE SOUTHERN MILITIA BILL.—The bill providing for the formation of local militia in the seven reconstructed States developed some points of interest in the debate to day. It come out that the bill is only preliminary—intended to be realized in detail by the other bill now before the Military Committee, which provides for the issuing of 2,000 stand of arms, of improved Springfield pattern, to each Congressional district in the reconstructed States, with two batteries of artillery; the same to be distributed by the Governors to loyal companies in those districts. Thus the full and powerful equipment of a standing negro army is to be provided for. In support of this design Wilson to-day recounted four thousand murders in Texas since November 4, and stated that more Union men have been murdered in the South since the 1st of January, 1867, than were killed at Gettysburg. He told of one disloyal Louisianian who boasted he had pinned 120 Union men with his own hand at Opelousas. To this narration by the Senator no description can do justice.—He was in his most God-fearing, liberty-loving vein, and delivered the fiction with a contempt for grammar and pronunciation which brought tears to the eyes of an open-eared intelligent contraband in the gallery. In the discussion of the bill several of the exotics from the South made their debut. Warner, of Alabama, exchanged compliments with Garret Davis on the virtue of scalawags and carpet-baggers, and was so very sensitive as to insist that he had lived at least eighteen months in the State, and had a right to be considered a regular representative. Sawyer, of South Carolina, made the best speech of the carpet-baggers, and, it must be said, was respectful, intelligent and direct. Rice, of Arkansas, has a voice which sounds as the yelp of a terrier after a rat; his voice cannot fill the chamber, but can empty it at any time.—Wash. Cor. N. Y. World.

A Washington dispatch to the Philadelphia Press says that "no doubt now exists that Mr. Stanton will decline to enter General Grant's Cabinet under any circumstances."

Senator Drake has written a letter to a member of the Missouri Legislature opposing universal amnesty and universal suffrage in that State, and favoring negro suffrage only.

THE FIRST BLOW FOR WOMAN SUFFRAGE. Senator Wilson, of Massachusetts, has become an advocate of female suffrage, and made the first bold movement in favor of woman's rights in the United States Senate to-day by the introduction of the following bill:

"Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the word "male" in the first section of the act entitled "An Act to regulate the elective franchise in the District of Columbia," passed on the 8th day of January, in the year 1867, be stricken out, and that every word in said act applicable to persons of the male sex shall apply equally to persons of the female sex, so that hereafter women who are inhabitants of said District of Columbia and citizens of the United States may vote at all elections on the same terms and conditions in all respects as men."

Thus this favored District is to be the first place where female suffrage is to be tried, as it was the first where Sambo put on his full political vestments. Since the commencement of the present session of Congress memorials have been presented from different places signed in all by about two thousand persons, a majority of whom are women, asking for female suffrage in the District of Columbia. About two hundred persons in Washington have memorialized to the same effect. There are six different measures pending, involving female suffrage, including two propositions for a constitutional amendment, one bill for such suffrage in the Territories, and three bills for suffrage in the District of Columbia. Representative Julian introduced three of these measures. Wash. Cor. N. Y. Herald.

SAVE US FROM OUR FRIENDS.—If report is true, the Indians recently attacked on Sheridan's order, and killed by Custer's cavalry, were friendly to the whites. Superintendent Murphy says that Black Kettle has always been a firm friend to the Government, even interfering for the protection of whites to the deep displeasure of a large portion of his band. When attacked, his people were within fifty miles of Fort Kearney to obtain their annuities. Superintendent Wynkoop has sent in his resignation, for the following reasons:

"He had ordered the Indians to rendezvous to receive their annuity goods, when they were attacked by Col. Chivington, at Sand Creek, and mercilessly slaughtered. After that the Indians lost confidence in him, but he succeeded in finding his way back to favor. Then while passing from the northern hunting grounds to their reservation, they were attacked by troops under Hancock and again outraged. Again they suspected Col. Wynkoop, and refused to deal with him, but once more he regained their confidence. Since the attack made by Custer, the Indians have become incensed against the Superintendent, and he dares not venture among them."

If these statements are true, it will tell fearfully against the intelligence and humanity of those in military authority in the Indian government. It is popular to cry out against the Indians, but the best evidence we can receive is that they are more sinned against than sinning.—New York Express.

A Most Wonderful and Successful Invention!

NEW METHOD OF WASHING CLOTHES WITHOUT LABOR.

THE AUTOMATIC
CLOTHES WASHER AND BOILER.

Awarded the highest Testimonial wherever Exhibited.

Rev. M. W. STAPLES, Inventor and Patentee.

THIS BOILER is self-acting, and dispenses entirely with labor and the wear of clothes. The hot suds and steam, by the action of fire, are driven up through tubes, poured upon the clothes, and forced through the fabric with astonishing rapidity, cleansing it perfectly without any rubbing. It has been thoroughly tested, and pronounced unequalled as a Clothes Washer, by those who have used it.

All fabrics, from the finest laces to the bed-blanket can be washed perfectly and with ease and without the aid of the rubbing-board. For Flannels it is invaluable, as the rubbing, rolling, and pressing process must necessarily full them more or less.

It is truly a labor and clothes saving invention. Washing will no longer be a hardship, and washing day no longer a terror and a dread to housewives.

The invention can be used in any boiler, and the low price of the article places it within the reach of every family.

The saving in the wear of clothes will soon pay for the outlay.

It is estimated that 200 to 300 gallons of boiled suds pass through the clothes in thirty minutes, this being the longest time required for cleansing a boiler full of clothes.

We are selling COUNTY RIGHTS rapidly.

What a rocky set of individuals!

Now just let ME tell you, that there is more humbug than poetry in all this. Don't every man, woman and child know that it is humbug large enough to be seen even with one eye shut? so let them talk, puff and blow, but mum, LOOK OUT! HANDS OFF! and show your good judgment by

THE SENTINEL.

JOSIAH TURNER, Jr., EDITOR.

SATURDAY, DECEMBER 19, 1868.

THE DESPOTISM OF FACTION.

The power of ruling faction is indeed wonderful, and it is the greater in proportion to the reckless and irresponsible character of those who lead. This power breaks down the self-control, and often destroys the self-respect and dignity, of men of spirit and talent, and it drives the ignorant and stupid before it as wind does the chaff. The power of faction is wonderful, indeed! It has been so in all times and among all people. It does not hesitate to defy and outrage the laws of both God and man; it mocks at civilization and laughs at Constitutional barriers; it marches on to its aimless purposes with all the fury of a hurricane, nor are its ruins and desolations less terrible. It does not reason; it makes no calculations and it triumphs in purposeless success. In its dreadful sweep, it wipes out civilization, obliterates nationalities and leads certainly and speedily to universal anarchy.

All history establishes beyond contradiction this terrible character of faction, and yet we find the American people, here in the blazing light of the nineteenth century, with all past experience to direct them, the consenting victims of its power. It permeates the Union and threatens, if not arrested, and that speedily, to accomplish its overthrow.

We ask the American citizen, the American patriot, if such a being still survives, to tell us what the American people have realized by the suppression of the "rebellion?" Has the Union been secured and established on enduring foundations? Have human liberty and free government, as presented to the world by Washington, been preserved and perpetuated? Can any man calmly command his judgment and answer these questions in the affirmative? He cannot. This is not the Union, as it was.—These are not the States, as they were. This Constitution is not the Constitution of our fathers! Is it? Can any man say so? No, the old Union is gone, and Radical factionists rejoice and clap their hands. The old States have become mere appendages to the central power of faction and extremists chuckle at their success. The Constitution, that used to be the bulwark of liberty and a nation's charter, is become a dead letter or a jest in the mouths of "loil" factionists. In short, the government of the Union is changed, wofully, sadly and ruinously changed, and all this is the work of reckless, irresponsible faction! Tell us truly, is this not too true?

We loved, and still love, the Union of Washington; we rejoiced in the strength and compass and character and power of the Constitution of his Union. We love the memory of both and shall forever. We would they could be re instated, and they would be, but for furious faction. It is destroying the Union, obliterating the States, and crushing or killing liberty; it is cutting up patriotism by the roots, and destroying public and private virtue. In the place of these, it has created a central faction called a Congress, absolute in all things; it has made the States appendages of the central faction, and engines to execute its will; it has substituted its will for liberty, and "loilty" to itself for patriotism, and vice and crime, public and private, for virtue and morality.

Only look abroad in this land, accursed of faction everywhere, and see the inevitable illustration of the truth of all we have said,—aye, and more! We did hope that the fury and fierceness of passion, engendered by the late war, would soon pass by; but we were sadly mistaken. The evil that is cursing and killing the American nation is deeper than the mere fury of passion; it is that spirit of faction which has dominated over and desolated the world in all ages. All the past counts nothing with faction. It cannot see—it will not see. The end will come, however terrible! American people, "ye would be dupes and ye are!" You have listened to the voice of "loil" faction, until it measures your loyalty to your country, and to truth and right, by your "loilty" to faction! You have lost sight of your nationality, you have forgotten to be patriotic, and you hear only the triumphant shouts of aimless, ruinous, powerful faction! Stop and see if this is not the truth of your condition!

TOO LATE.—Petitions are being circulated in various portions of the State, praying the Legislature to decrease the current expenses of the government. This is "locking in the stable after the horse is gone." The people were told, during the late canvass, the prodigacy and extravagance of the men in power, and the enormous taxes that would be accumulated upon them under Radical rule, and yet a majority voted to continue these men in place, and virtually sanctioned their policy. Repentance comes too late, and, were it not that the innocent are involved in the common calamity, we should say that the guilty deserve to suffer.

NEWSPAPER CHANGES.—Capt. R. A. Fhotwell has disposed of the Western Vindicator to Maj. L. P. Erwin, who assumes Editorial control. Capt. S. made the Vindicator a sprightly and interesting paper, and we have no doubt that Major Erwin will render it equally so. Here's to both!

The Rev. J. B. Bobbitt takes charge of the Episcopal Methodist,—the Rev. H. T. Hudson retiring. Mr. H. has labored earnestly in the interests of the paper and conducted it with ability and Christian zeal. Mr. Bobbitt has our best wishes for his success.

"THE CODE."

As announced, on yesterday, quite a number of legal gentlemen assembled in the Senate Chamber, on Wednesday evening last, to consider the "Code." We learn, further, that it was discussed and "cussed," and that nobody approved of it. It seems to satisfy nobody but the "Code Commissioners," "Judges" Rodman and Tourgee and Mr. Victor C. Barringer, and they go for it, because they get $600 per month, besides fuel, lights, and incidentals, for cutting up a copy of the New York Code and adapting it, in name and date, to poor old North-Carolina.

We learn that the objections to "the Code," pointed out in the meeting to which we refer, were endless and serious. Nothing definite, however, was done, further than the appointment of a Committee to report, after mature consideration, what changes can and ought to be made, to an adjourned meeting, on the 7th January.

We predict that "Judges" Rodman and Tourgee and Mr. Barringer will raise the hue and cry that the "rebels" are rising, that "The Code" is in danger, and "loilty," too, and that nothing will come of this Committee and meeting of and for reform, though "Lt. Gov." Caldwell and "Judge" Cloud, and other Radical lights, were present and participated in the meeting. It won't do to displace this "loil" Code Commission; the State cannot do without the legal light of "Judges" Rodman and Tourgee, and Mr. Barringer; they must be continued at whatever cost of money or judicial confusion and darkness that may come upon and cover this "rebellious" and down-trodden "disloil" people. This is, indeed, an age of Radicalism and "carpet-bagism!" And, as a result, the people are happy and prosperous! Their faces are glad; their barns are full; their fortunes are multiplying and their hopes are high? Aye, and in truth, their condition is intolerable! Intolerable, that is it!

On motion of Mr. Osborne, the rules were suspended, and the bill authorizing the Public Treasurer to borrow money to meet the present exigencies of the Treasury was taken up and passed its second reading,—Mr. Graham voting in the negative.

On motion of Mr. Legg, the rules were suspended and the resolution in favor of the Sheriff of Brunswick was taken up and passed its second reading.

SPECIAL ORDER, viz:

Report of one-half of the Committee on Privileges and Elections, declaring Mr. Purdie ineligible to his seat.

Mr. Graham said that this was a very important question, and should not be considered at a time when there are so few Senators in their seats. He did not see the necessity of hasty action: nothing could be accomplished by it, and he moved to postpone its further consideration until January 6th.

The Chair ruled the motion out of order, on the ground that a similar motion was voted down on yesterday.

Mr. Wynne said he hoped the object of the Senator from Orange would be reached in some way. He agreed with the Senator, that this was an important question and should not be rushed through without mature consideration. A postponement of this question, in his judgment, would not injure any one, and would simply be an act of justice to the Senator. The Senate can lose nothing. Mr. President, by an extension of courtesy, and he moved to reconsider the vote, by which the Senate, on yesterday, refused to postpone to the 6th of January.

Mr. Hayes said this question had been postponed time and again, to allow the Senator an opportunity to get his disabilities removed, and he was authorized, by a member of the House, to state, that a telegram had been received, to-day, from one of our Representatives in Congress, which stated that Mr. Purdie's disabilities would not be removed.

Mr. Wynne said that, on yesterday, during the discussion, something was said about certain communications relating to this subject. They stated that the Senator would be relieved of his disabilities. The Senator from Robeson insisted upon having these communications read for the information of the Senate. Now, Mr. President, if the telegram the Senator alluded to, is in the city, (without casting any reflection on the Senator,) I ask is it not right and just that it should be presented to the Senate, particularly, if this information is to influence the action of the Senate?

The question recurring on Mr. Wynne's motion, the Senate refused to reconsider,—yeas 16, nays 16. The President voted in the negative.

Mr. Beeman moved to postpone its further consideration to the 8th of January, which was carried, viz:

NAYS—Messrs. Barrow, Bellamy, Blythe, Colgrove, Cook, Davis, Eppes, (colored,) Forkner, Galloway, (colored,) Hayes, Hyman, (colored,) Lassiter, Legg and Stephens—14.

Mr. Moore, of Carteret, moved to reconsider the vote,

And, on motion of Mr. Osborne, that motion was laid on the table,—yeas 16, nays 15.

On motion, the Senate adjourned until to-morrow, 11 o'clock.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.

FRIDAY, Dec. 18, 1868.

The House was called to order at 10 o'clock.

Mr. Smith, of Wayne, moved to suspend the rules and take up the bill to legalize certain official acts of Chairmen of the late County Courts of the State. Carried. The bill passed its several readings.

By consent, Mr. Vest introduced a bill in relation to municipal elections.

On motion of Mr. Vest, the rules were suspended, and the bill passed its several readings.

Mr. Hodgin presented a petition from the citizens of Guilford County, in reference to draining lands. Referred.

Mr. Moore presented the report of the Commissioners of Alamance County. Referred.

By Mr. Whitley: A resolution instructing the Committee on Counties and Townships, to examine the Constitution and laws of the State, with reference to Counties and Townships, whether any further legislation is necessary to perfect their organization. The resolution was adopted.

Mr. Sinclair arose to a question of privilege in reference to the report of yesterday's proceedings in the Sentinel of this morning. He read the following extract from that paper:

"Mr. Sinclair exhibited a petition, containing a large number of names.

Mr. Jarvis: Do you know, sir, that a majority of the voters of that section of Tyrrell, which the bill proposes to cut off, have signed that petition?

Mr. Sinclair: I am not sufficiently acquainted with that portion of the country to answer the question.

Mr. Jarvis: That shows, sir, the impropriety of people's meddling with things that they know nothing about."

He did not understand the gentleman from Tyrrell to make any such reply. He was not interfering with business that did not concern him,—he having charge of the bill then, &c.

By Mr. Wiswall: A bill to incorporate the Southern Iron Works Tram Road. Referred.

By Mr. Sinclair: A resolution for the relief of A. J. Johnston, late Clerk of the County Court of Onslow.

On motion of Mr. Sinclair, the rules were suspended, and the resolution passed its several readings.

Mr. Jarvis said he thought it due to the Reporter of the Sentinel for him to say that he (the Reporter) had quoted his remarks nearly word for word. He thought then, and still thought, when any gentleman intended to discuss the local affairs of any section, he should, at least, first inform him self correctly as to the facts in the case.

Mr. Sinclair moved to reconsider the vote by which the consideration of the bill to erect the new County of Dare was postponed until the third Monday in January next.

Mr. Davis moved to lay that motion on the table. Lost.

Mr. Farrow said he hoped the House would not reconsider the vote. It would not certainly hurt the bill to postpone it for a short while. All that he asked was a little time to hear from his people, in order to ascertain their wishes.

Mr. Jarvis said it was nothing but reasonable to grant the time asked for. He did not think, because they were the dominant party, that they should hurry through a bill which might be distasteful to the people whom it mostly concerned. He did not care whether the movement was a political one or not. He should certainly follow the dictates of his own convictions of right and wrong, and object to any reconsideration of the vote.

Cuffee Mayo, colored, favored the reconsideration; William Cawthone, colored, objected to it; and Wm. Hutchings, colored, also favored it.

J. S. Leary, colored, said that, on yesterday, this question of postponement was thoroughly discussed and the bill was postponed. He voted for that motion, because he thought the request of the Representatives of those counties for time to ascertain the wishes of their constituents in the matter was a most reasonable one. He thought so still. He had the party lash often cracked over his head, because he did not act as other men wished him, but as long as he had a seat on this floor, he would inform everybody that he intended to represent the interest of the people, and not the interest of any clique. He hoped the motion to reconsider would not prevail, as it was nothing but fair and courteous to grant the request of the Representatives of those counties, who, he must presume, knew more of the wishes of the people of that section than we do.

Mr. Stilley took the floor in favor of the reconsideration. He said the Republicans of that section asked for this county, and the gentlemen who represented that section on the floor were Democrats, and the Republicans were not represented.

Mr. Jarvis: Can you put your finger on the name of a Republican on that petition?

Mr. Stilley: I suppose the Senator from that section, who introduced this measure, knows who are Republicans.

Mr. Jarvis: I want you, sir, to point them out.

Mr. Stilley responded in substance that he did not know them, and continued for some time to urge the reconsideration, repeating in substance the arguments gone over yesterday.

After some further debate, Mr. Stilley said the Senators of that section authorized him to say that they would prefer to have the bill defeated than postponed.

Mr. Stevens spoke in favor of the motion to reconsider.

Mr. Pou said that when he was satisfied that the people of that section wished for the new county, then he would vote for it, regardless of what any outsider should say. For the reason that it had not been shown that the people wished it, he voted for the postponement yesterday, and for the same reason he would oppose any motion to reconsider.

Mr. Argo expressed himself to the same effect. He did not think any action should be taken in the matter, until the desires of the people concerned should be clearly and fairly ascertained.

Mr. Farrow said he had been a member of this House, off and on, for many years, and he had never, during the whole course of his experience, witnessed such an entire disregard of the usual courtesies which the House paid to Representatives where matters of a purely local character concerning their immediate section were under discussion.

Mr. Sinclair called for the previous question on his resolution to reconsider. The call was sustained, and the motion prevailed—yeas 43, nays 36.

By consent, Mr. Seymour introduced a bill for a special term of the Superior Court in the county of Craven. The bill passed its several readings, under a suspension of the rules.

The discussion on the postponement of the bill, establishing the county of Dare, was resumed.

After a long debate, and innumerable points of order as to the present status of the bill, the question was decided by the Chair to be properly on the motion to postpone until the third Monday in January.

Mr. Jarvis said the people of the section which the bill proposed to cut up did not know even that such a proposition was pending in the House. He could not see any reasonable objection to the request of the Representatives of the people of that section, for time to ascertain the wishes of the people. He knew that it had been represented outside, that the reason he opposed the bill was because the one hundred votes that the bill takes away from the County of Tyrrell would leave it Republican. That was not so, for that County has a registered majority of over three hundred Democrats.

The question recurred upon the motion to postpone until the third Monday in January.

On motion, the yeas and nays were called and resulted in a vote of yeas 34, nays 40.

The question recurred upon the motion to refer to the Committee on Counties and Townships.

The yeas and nays were called and resulted, yeas 32, nays 40.

Mr. Sinclair moved to suspend the rules and put the bill on its several readings, and on that motion called the previous question. The call for the previous question was sustained and the rules were suspended by a vote of yeas 44, nays 31.

The bill was again read, when Mr. Sinclair moved to put it on the second reading, and on that motion called the previous question. The call was sustained, and on the passage of the bill, the yeas and nays were called and resulted in yeas 47, nays 24.

Mr. Sinclair moved to suspend the rules and put the bill on its final passage, and, on that motion, called the previous question. The call was sustained, and the vote stood—yeas 47, nays 37.

The motion did not prevail—two-thirds not voting in favor of it.

Messrs. Allison, Gunter and Stanton presented the reports of the Commissioners of their respective counties, which were ap propriately referred.

On motion of Mr. Davis, the rules were suspended, and the resolution in favor of J. H. Davis, former Sheriff of Carteret county, was taken up and the resolution passed its several readings.

On motion of Mr. Stilley, the bill in relation to the county of Dare was made the special order for to-morrow, 11 o'clock.

On motion of Mr. Hinnant, the rules were suspended and the Senate bill to amend the act for the relief of P. T. Massey and E. G. Hill, of Johnston county, was taken up and passed its several readings.

On motion of J. H. Harris, of Wake, colored, the rules were suspended and House bill No. 117, for the better protection of certain debtors, was taken up.

The question recurred upon the following substitute of Mr. Seymour: "The General Assembly of North Carolina do enact, That any Sheriff, or their officers, deputy or agent, who shall, under any warrant, expose to public sale or take away so much of the property or estate of any debtor as is exempted from said upon execution, by the exemption laws in existence, previous to the adoption of the present Constitution, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor."

J. H. Harris, of Wake, colored, offered an amendment, by adding "and punished by not more than $1000 fine, or one year's imprisonment."

The call was sustained and resulted in 38 yeas to 13 nays—not a quorum voting.

On motion, the House adjourned until to morrow morning, 10 o'clock.

For the Sentinel.

"LET THE LIGHT SHINE."

We are illuminated, but we are really sorry for the gentleman, who calls himself Chief Editor and Proprietor of the Standard. With the large corps of subs that he has under him, we are not surprised that he should find his own pen principally occupied in writing apologies for his subordinates.

According to the Standard, every man who insinuates even, that bribery and corruption are not honorable engines of legislation, is a copperhead. Capt Sweet was a copperhead, because, as a Senator, he was sensitive to the reputation of the Legislature, and, rather than be a party to its corruption, denounced the bribery that he knew was going on, and took a stand where all honorable men will uphold him.

A certain gentleman from Connecticut is denounced as a copperhead, because he did not see the necessity of an "8,000 acre Park" for a Penitentiary, and so on, but we happen to know that said copperhead never voted the Democratic ticket, and was President of the first Republican Convention of Oneida, New York; and we also happen to know, which is more to the point, that it was openly said that the reason why he did not get the Presidency of the North Carolina Railroad, was because he was too honest a man to be used, as it would be necessary, for the interest of the Republican party, to use him. We have heard the author of the editorial, "Let The Light Shine," in the Standard of Dec. 8th, quote that famous saying of Walpole's, "Every man has his price," and it seems he thinks that the "Connecticut bond speculator" has his, in the shape of the Presidency of the North Carolina Railroad, with a salary of two or three thousand a year, and a shanty (from an interested party) somewhere, out of the pale of civilization, qualk.

Perhaps he has, but the party were afraid to trust him. When the editor quotes Lamartine, let him go on, (if perchance he has read thus far,) and quote the rest, "but he was found to be a man above price," and although we are not in political sympathy with this Connecticut speculator, we believe that neither Capt. Sweet nor himself will be afraid to "let the light shine." This some bearing to the editorial in question rather puzzles us, as it seems to us, that the whole object of this article is to darken, rather than enlighten. Possibly the Captain, Chaplain, or whatever his title may be, thinks he has flooded the world with light, by telling us, "that Capt. Sweet is actuated by revenge, because his candidate was not elected, and that he is a puppet in the hands of this Connecticut Copperhead." Oh! Captain, we fear that you will find him a most unmanageable puppet before he gets through with what he has undertaken. We have read that article all through, and that is saying a great deal, for we own up conquered by that Thanksgiving Sermon; and when we came to the closing sentence, "We cherish the utmost confidence and so on," we put the paper one side, feeling that the Turkish word "Bosh" was more expressive than all the words in the dictionary, had we the gift, even, of putting them together in the same meaningless manner, as a certain friend of ours, who began to write too late in life to write anything but. Bosh.

Ayer's Sarsaparilla,

FOR PURIFYING THE BLOOD.

The reputation this excellent medicine enjoys, is derived from its cures, many of which are of a truly marvellous character. Inveterate cases of Scrofula, where the system seemed utterly given up to corruption, have yielded to this compound of anti-strumous virtues. Disorders of a scrofulous type, and affections which are merely aggravated by the presence of scrofulous matter, have been radically cured in such numerous instances, in every settlement in the country, that the public do not need to be informed here that it is in most cases a specific and absolute remedy.

Scrofulous poison is one of the most destructive enemies of our race. Often, this unseen and unfelt tenant of the organism undermines the constitution, and invites the attack of some latent or fatal disease, without exciting a suspicion of its presence. Again, it seems to breed infection throughout the body, and then, on some favorable occasion, rapidly develop into one or other of its hideous forms, either on the surface or among the vitals. In the latter, tubercles may be suddenly deposited in the lungs or heart, or tumors formed in the liver. These facts make the occasional use of the Sarsaparilla as a preventive, advisable.

It is a mistake to suppose that so long as no eruptions or humors appear, there must be no scrofulous taint. These forms of derangement may never occur, and yet the vital forces of the body be so reduced by its subtle agency, as materially to impair the health and shorten the duration of life. It is a common error, also, that scrofula is strictly hereditary. It does, indeed, descend from parent to child, but is also engendered in persons born of pure blood. Low living, indigestion, foul air, licentious habits, unwholesome food, and the corresponding vices, generally, produce it. Weakly constitutions, where not fortified by the most constant and judicious care, are peculiarly liable to it. Yet the robust, also, whose turbid blood swells the veins with an apparently exuberant vitality, are not consummated, and on the road to its consequences. Indeed, no class or condition can depend on immunity from it, nor feel insensible to the importance of an effectual remedy.

In St. Anthony's Fire, Rose or Erysipelas, for Tetter, Salt Rheum, Scald Head, Ringworm, Sore Ears and Eyes, and other eruptive or visible forms of the diseases caused primarily by the scrofulous infection, the Sarsaparilla is as confidently to be believed in as in the more concealed forms, as in Dyspepsia, Dropsy, Heart Disease, Fits, Epilepsy, Neuralgia, and other affections of the muscular and nervous systems, the Sarsaparilla, through its purifying powers, removes the cause of the disorder and produces astonishing cures.

The sarsaparilla root of the tropics does not by itself achieve these results. It is aided by the extracts combined with it, of other roots, herbs, etc., potent in the action of healing virtues. Syphilis or Venereal and Mercurial Diseases are cured by it, though a long time is required for subduing these obstinate maladies by any medicine. Leucorrhœa or Whites, Female Weaknesses, and Female Diseases in general, are commonly soon relieved and ultimately cured by the invigorating and purifying effect of our Sarsaparilla. Rheumatism and Gout, often dependent on the accumulations of extraneous matters in the blood, have their remedy also in this medicine. For Liver Complaints, torpidity, inflammation, abscess, etc., caused by rankling poisons in the blood, we unhesitatingly recommend the Sarsaparilla.

This medicine restores health and vigor where no specific disease can be distinguished. Its restorative power is soon felt by those who are Languid, Listless, Despondent, Sleepless, and filled with Nervous Apprehensions or Fears, or who are troubled with any other of those affections symptomatic of weakness. Many, after taking it for General Debility, have written us of the youthful vigor imparted to their nerves by its use, and second buoyancy with that prelude life they thought had departed on the advance of age. Others, whose fountains of life were always sterile, acknowledge their obligations to it for an obvious change.

Ayer's Ague Cure,

For Fever and Ague, Intermittent Fever, Chill Fever, Remittent Fever, Dumb Ague, Periodical or Bilious Fever, &c., and indeed all the affections which arise from malarious, marsh, or miasmatic poisons.

As its name implies, it does Cure, and does it fast and surely. Containing neither Arsenic, Quinine, Bismuth, Zinc, nor any other mineral or poisonous substance whatever, it in nowise injures any patient. The number and importance of its cures in the ague districts, are literally beyond account, and we believe without a parallel in the history of medicine. Our pride is gratified by the acknowledgments we receive of the radical cures effected in obstinate cases, and where other remedies had wholly failed.

Unacclimated persons, either resident in, or travelling through miasmatic localities, will be protected by taking the AGUE CURE daily.

For Liver Complaints, arising from torpidity of the Liver, it is an excellent remedy, stimulating the Liver into healthy activity.

Description of Policies.

First—Whole Life Policies.

Second—Endowment Policies, for terms of ten, fifteen, twenty, twenty-five, thirty, and thirty-five years.

AGES.

Insurance will be granted at all ages from fifteen to sixty years.

PREMIUMS.

Premiums are payable annually during the continuance of the insurance, or annually during a period of five, ten, fifteen, or twenty years within the insurance term, or by single payment.

DIVIDENDS.

All Whole Life and Endowment Policies, issued at the rates published herewith, will participate in the surplus from the date of issue,

The dividends will be declared and paid annually upon the contribution plan, and may be applied as the assured shall elect, either to reduce future premiums, or to increase the Cash Value of the Policy.

If no election be made the dividends will be added to the Cash Values.

When, by adding the dividends to the Cash Value, the accumulations on any Policy shall have become sufficient to keep the same in force for its full amount, without further payments, the assured may, at his option, either continue payment of premiums—and enlarge thereby the annual additions to its Cash Value—or discontinue them; and in either case, when the accumulations shall have become equal to the sum insured, the annual dividends on the Policy will be declared as a per centage of said sum, and paid as cash, and upon surrender of said Policy the sum insured thereby will be paid in full, without regard to the time fixed therein for its payment.

The system of applying the dividends is peculiarly advantageous to the assured, securing, at an increased age, not only relief from further payment of premiums, but, at the same time, an annual income until death, unless he shall have previously received full payment of the Policy.

Dividends on paid-up Policies—that is, Policies which require no further payment of premium to continue them in force for the original amount of insurance—will be paid in cash upon demand.

Non-Forfeiture Rules.

No Whole Life or Endowment Policy, on which two or more annual cash premiums have been paid, shall be forfeited by failure to make further payment as stipulated therein, but will continue in force for the full amount which the Cash Value and dividends, then accumulated, will purchase—taken as a single net premium, upon the "Actuaries" rate of mortality and four per cent. interest, and the amount continued in force will generally exceed the aggregate of the payments actually made, extra charges excepted.

MISCELLANEOUS.

To the People of the Southern States.

NEW YORK, Nov. 3, 1868.

When the pure medicinal restorative, now so widely known as Wolfe's Schiedam Schnapps, was introduced into the world under the endorsement of four thousand leading members of the medical profession some 20 years ago, its proprietor was well aware that it could not wholly escape the penalty attached to all new and useful preparations. He, therefore, endeavored to invest it with strongest possible safeguard against counterfeiters, and to render all attempts to pirate it difficult and dangerous. It was submitted to distinguished chemists for analysis, and pronounced by them the purest spirit ever manufactured. Its purity and properties having been thus ascertained, samples of the article were forwarded to ten thousand physicians, including all the leading practitioners in the United States, for purposes of experiment. A circular, requesting a trial of the preparation and a report of the result, accompanied each specimen. Four thousand of the most eminent medical men in the Union promptly responded. Their opinions of the article were unanimously favorable. Such a preparation, they said, had long been wanted by the profession, as no reliance could be placed on the ordinary liquors of commerce, all of which were more or less adulterated, and therefore unfit for medical purposes. The peculiar excellence and strength of the oil of juniper, which formed one of the principal ingredients of the Schnapps, together with its medicated character of the alcoholic essence, gave to the preparation, in the opinion of faculty, a marked superiority over every other diffusive stimulant as a diuretic, tonic and restorative.

These satisfactory credentials from professional men of the highest rank were published in a condensed form, and enclosed with each bottle of the Schnapps, as one of the guarantees of its genuineness. Other precautions against fraud were also adopted; a patent was obtained for the article, the label was copyrighted, a fac simile of the proprietor's autograph signature was attached to each label and cover, his name and that of the preparation were embossed on the bottles, and the corks were sealed with his private seal. No article had ever been sold in this country under the name of Schnapps prior to the introduction of Wolfe's Schiedam Schnapps, in 1854; and the label was deposited, as his trade mark, in the District Clerk's office of the District Court for the Southern District of New York during that year.

It might be supposed by persons unacquainted with the daring character of the pirates who prey upon the reputation of honorable merchants by vending deleterious trash under their name, that the protections so carefully thrown around these schnapps would have prevented the introduction and sale of counterfeits. They seem, however only to have stimulated the rapacity of impostors. The trade marks of the proprietor has been stolen; the indorsement which his Schiedam Aromatic Schnapps alone received from the medical profession has been claimed by mendacious humbugs; his labels and bottles have been imitated, his advertisements paraphrased, his circulars copied, and worse than all, dishonorable retailers, after disposing of the genuine contents of the bottles, have filled them up with common gin, the most deleterious of all liquors, and thus made his name and brand a cover for poison.

The public, the medical profession and the sick, for whom the Schiedam Aromatic Schnapps is prescribed as a remedy, are equally interested with the proprietor in the detection and suppression of these infamous practices. The genuine article, manufactured at the establishment of the undersigned, in Schiedam, Holland, is distilled from a variety of the finest quality, and flavored with an essential extract of the berry of the Italian juniper, of unequaled purity. By a process unknown in the preparation of any other liquor, it is freed from every acrimonious and corrosive element.

Complaints have been received from the leading physicians and families in the Southern States of the sale of cheap imitations of the Schiedam Aromatic Schnapps in those markets; and travellers, who are in the habit of using it as an antidote to the baneful influence of unwholesome river water, testify that cheap gin, put up in Schiedam bottles, is frequently palmed off upon the unwary. The agents of the undersigned have been requested to institute inquiries on the subject, and to forward to him the names of such parties as they may ascertain to be engaged in the atrocious system of deception. In conclusion, the undersigned would say that he has produced, from under the hands of the most distinguished men of science in America, proofs unanswerable of the purity and medicinal excellence of the Schiedam Aromatic Schnapps; that he has expended many thousand dollars in surrounding it with guards, seals and safe-guards, which he designed should protect the public and himself against fraudulent imitations; that he has shown it to be the only liquor in the world that can be uniformly depended upon as unadulterated; that he has challenged investigation, analysis, comparison, and experiment in all its forms; and from every ordeal the preparation which bears his name, seal and trade-mark, has come off triumphant. He therefore feels it a duty he owes to his fellow-citizens generally, to the medical profession and the sick, to denounce and to expose the charlatans who counterfeit these evidences of identity and he calls upon the press and the public to aid him in his efforts to remedy so great an evil.

The following letters and certificates from the leading physicians and chemists of this city will prove to the reader that all goods sold by the undersigned are and they are genuine.

UDOLPHO WOLFE.

I feel bound to say, that I regard your Schnapps as being in every respect pre-eminently pure, and deserving of medical patronage. At all events, it is the purest potable article of Holland Gin, heretofore ascertainable, and, as such, may be safely prescribed by physicians.

DAVID L. MOTT, M. D.,
Pharmaceutical Chemist, New York.

26 PINE STREET, NEW YORK,
Nov. 21, 1867.

UDOLPHO WOLFE, Esq., Present:

DEAR SIR:—I have made a chemical examination of a sample of your Schiedam Schnapps, with the intent of determining if any foreign or injurious substance had been added to the simple distilled spirits.

The examination has resulted in the conclusion that the sample contained no poisonous or harmful admixture. I have been unable to discover any trace of the deleterious substances which are employed in the adulteration of liquors. I would not hesitate to use myself or to recommend to others, for medical purposes, the Schiedam Schnapps as an excellent and unobjectionable variety of Gin.

Very respectfully yours,
(Signed,) CHAS. A. SEELY, Chemist.

Capt. A. W. Lawrence, the indefatigable and courteous General Agent of the Brooklyn Life Insurance Company, again calls attention, in his usual explicit and satisfactory manner, to the eminent advantages of his Company. Policies "valuable in life as well as in death,"—a great and striking feature, which cannot fail to impress the public, at a glance. Read his advertisement.

The exercises of the admirable Select Boarding and Day School of the Misses Nash and Miss Kollock, Hillsboro, will be resumed on the 5th of February. This School is without its superior in the country.

WE INVITE the attention of the business public to the Card of our young friend, Mr. E. B. Clark, of Edenton, N. C., who has associated himself with Messrs. Gwathmey Bros., Wholesale Grocers and Commission Merchants, Norfolk, Virginia. The Messrs. Gwathmey Brothers are doing a large trade in North Carolina, and the announcement that they have associated with them the gallant Sergeant Major of the 6th N. C. L A. Battalion and popular young Carolinian, Mr. Clarke, will add greatly to the character of that well-known firm.

"THE LEGISLATURE" —PEPPER POSS.—We are not advised what locality in Erin boasts the nativity of Chaplain Pepper, one of the Editors of the Governor's paper, but our own private opinion is that, wherever born, he has made frequent pilgrimages to the "Blarney-stone,"—aye, and kissed it, too. The Chaplain is a sort of walking "Admiration Society,"—the only misfortune being that, in his amiable and harmless disposition to paint the world, and all the "loil" inhabitants thereof, couleur du rose, "he lays it on too thick." Dr. Johnson very wittily speaks of "damning a man with praise," and we imagine that some of the members of the Legislature, embraced in the Painter-Parson's portrait gallery, as grouped in the Standard of yesterday, might speak feelingly upon this point.—Perhaps, however, most of them will swallow it all.

> "'Tis an old maxim of the schools,
> That flattery's the food of fools,
> Yet now and then you men of wit
> Will condescend to take a bit."

We confess, for ourselves, that we have never seen the Chaplain's equal as a plus ultra. And, in this respect, it is sad to think that, although "History may repeat itself," Nature never reproduces herself, and we shall never have another Pepper! We spoke of him, some days since, as Holden's peculiar Boswell, but we did him injustice; he is the universal Radical Boswell. He hangs upon the lips of each and all of the precious saints,—whether they drop wisdom or nonsense, whether they be the thin Caucasian or the blubber African,—with an earnest and loving rapture not equalled by that with which the great Lexiographer's parasite listened to his sonorous sentences. Long live Pepper, say we!

We have no objection, by way of advertising the Parson's artistic abilities, to hanging up a few of his portraits in our shop-window. Here they are:

"Ted R. Caldwell,—Able lawyer, excellent orator, bonhommie, &c." This last quality illustrated in a reported declaration of his, just after the surrender, that he would like to have "a hanging,—beginning with Vance."

"R. W. Lassiter,—Sweetness of temper and transparent sympathy;" viz: that kind of sympathy, we suppose, that can be seen through.

"G. W. Welker,—Puritanic hater of shams and loud voice." Amended by striking out "of shams," and true to life.

"Rev. James Blythe—tireless laborer, &c."

"It occurs to my mind, Mr. Speaker, that the gen'lum" meant tiresome. Il so, all right, and well done, Pepper.

"C. H. Brogden,—fine specimen of Union Democrat." The portrait would not have answered for Curtis, eight years ago. He was then a specimen of a Secesh Democrat,—but a poor one, we admit.

"Col. J. B. Cook—fervent love of liberty, colored regiment, scars, battle's wild commotion, bird with untried wing, self-denying generosity," spangles, sky-rockets and gold dust. Oh! thou dear flattering Pepper. Cook's own colored pets of the — regiment would'nt know the "picter."

"J. G. Martindale,—Seldom speaks, but when he does, it is always to the purpose." We recollect one remarkable instance of the kind, in the Senator's history, when he spun that ever to be remembered yarn, on the night of the Radical torch-light procession. We would reproduce it, if we had space.

"Senator Galloway"—the Parson will please excuse us. De gustibusnon est disputandum.

And now, seriously, though the colored Senator from Warren, Jno. Hyman, may be a worthy man of his race, still, when the military-political parson speaks of him as the fit successor of Nathaniel Macon and Weldon N. Edwards, he libels the memory of the dead and the living and is guilty of a great outrage.

SERIOUS ASSAULT.—We learn, from the Greensboro Times, that Wesley Lindsay, a negro, on Wednesday night, severely injured C. P. Mendenhall, Esq., by striking him several times over the head. This negro has a wife in Mr. M's. employ, and, being very intemperate and insolent, was forbidden to come upon the premises. He went to Mr. M's. under the influence of liquor and was ordered off. He left, but some time afterwards Mr. M. went out in his yard and was suddenly attacked by the negro, who was watching for him, knocked down and badly beaten. The negro was arrested and put in jail.

REMARKS OF MR. POU, OF JOHNSTON,

Mr. Pou said he wished to state four reasons for voting against the bill to re enact and confirm the issuing of certain bonds to certain Railroad Companies, (published elsewhere.) Two of them were constitutional objections, and two of them were objections on grounds of policy.

1. The Chatham Road is essentially a new Road within the letter and spirit of the Constitution. The corporation now known by that name is a different artificial person, from the corporation that was in existence at the time of the adoption of the Constitution. Hence, the appropriation or subscription pretended to be made to the Chatham Railroad, amounting to $2,000,000, by the terms of this bill, can have no validity unless submitted to "a direct vote of the people of the State and approved by a majority of those who shall vote thereon," (see Constitution, Art. IV, Sec. 3.) This objection certainly affects the aid to the Chatham Road. Perhaps it also invalidates the aid to the other Roads.

2. Another constitutional objection reaches the attempts to lend State aid to all the Roads mentioned in the bill. The General Assembly is bound to recognize the necessity of allowing adequate taxes to be raised for county purposes. It is also bound to provide for the paying the annual interest on the State debt existing at the time the people adopted the Constitution. It is, also, bound to provide for the current necessary expenses of the State government.—It is bound (see Constitution, Art. IX. Sec. 3,) during the present session, "to provide, by taxation and otherwise, for a general and uniform system of public schools, wherein tuition shall be free to all the children of the State, between the ages of six and twenty-one years." This bill attempts to create new obligations upon the State, involving the necessity of an annual tax on property of more than thirteen cents on the one hundred dollars, while, at the same time, it is evident that the whole amount of property tax allowed by the Constitution for State and county purposes, combined, of every possible kind, (66⅔ cents on the $100 of valuation,) will be required to meet current expenses, and debts which are either of vital importance to the State, or are already incurred. Hence, in my opinion, the act is unconstitional on this second ground.

3. The amount voted to the connexions of the Chatham Railroad, by an ordinance of the late Convention, $1,200,000, has probably not yet been used. Why call for $2,000,000 more now? Why glut the market with N. C. bonds? Why depreciate still lower the State credit? Why, allow sale of bonds to be made at ruinous rates of discount when no immediate use can be made of the proceeds of the sale? In our individual transactions we would not act in such a manner. As agents of a State already suffering financial embarrassment we ought not.

4. The State furnishes all the stock of the Chatham Road. Sec. 7 of this bill limits the capital stock of the Road to $3,200,000, which is made up, of course, of $1,200,000 appropriated by the Convention and the $2,000,000 proposed to be appropriated by this act. Thus:

Convention appropriation	$1,200,000
By this bill	2,000,000
	$3,200,000.

Section 6 of this bill provides that the State, though owning or guaranteeing all the stock and directly owning nearly two-thirds of it, shall only cast one-third of the votes in the management of the fund. The private Stockholders shall cast two-thirds of the vote. Language cannot do justice to the iniquity of this provision!

A BILL ENTITLED "AN ACT TO RE-ENACT AND CONFIRM CERTAIN ACTS OF THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY, AUTHORIZING THE ISSUE OF STATE BONDS TO AND FOR CERTAIN RAILROAD COMPANIES."

WHEREAS, Doubts have been raised as to the validity of bonds of the State issued to and for certain Railroad Companies under acts whose titles are hereinafter recited; and whereas, it is the purpose of this General Assembly to place the validity of such bonds beyond question: Now, therefore,

SECTION. 1. The General Assembly of North Carolina do enact, That an act entitled "An act to amend the charter of the Williamston and Tarboro' Railroad Company," ratified the 17th day of August, A. D., 1868, and an act entitled "An act to amend the charter of the Western North Carolina Railroad Company," ratified the 19th day of August, A. D., 1868, and all the provisions thereof, be, and the same are hereby re-enacted and in all things confirmed, and they are hereby constituted part of this act; and all bonds of the State heretofore made and issued to and for the Railroad Companies, and for the purposes in said acts specified, and in pursuance of the same, are hereby ratified and made good to all intents and purposes as if issued under and in pursuance of the provisions of this act.

SEC. 2. That on the surrender of the bonds heretofore issued under and by virtue of any one of said acts, the Treasurer is hereby authorised and required to issue and substitute new bonds of the State, of like tenor and date, executed in like manner, and in all respects similar, for such bonds so surrendered, except that such new and substituted bonds shall be issued and purport to be issued under and by virtue of this act; and the bonds so surrendered shall be burnt by the Treasurer in the presence of the Governor and Auditor, who shall cause to be made and sign a certificate, specifying the number and date of such bonds so burnt, and the act under which the same were issued, and the Treasurer shall report such action and certificate to the General Assembly.

SEC. 3. In order to provide for the payment of the interest that may from time to time accrue upon such bonds so issued under said acts, and the bonds to be issued and so substituted under this act, there shall be annually levied and collected a special tax of one thirtieth of one per cent. on the taxable property of the State, to pay the interest that has accrued and may from time to time accrue on the bonds so issued and so to be issued to and for the said, the Williamston and Tarboro' Railroad Company, and a like special tax of one-eighth of one per cent. on all such taxable property of the State shall be annually levied and collected to pay the interest that has accrued and may from time to time accrue on the bonds so issued and so to be issued to and for and on account of the said, the Western North Carolina Railroad Company.

SEC. 3. The Public Treasurer is hereby directed, whenever the President of the Chatham Railroad Company shall certify that the grading of the Road between Cheraw, in South Carolina, and the Gulf or some other point on the Chatham Railroad between Raleigh and the Gulf, has been let to contract, to subscribe to the capital stock of said Company two million dollars in behalf of the State, which subscription shall be paid by delivering to the President of said Company coupon bonds of the State at par, of the denomination of one thousand dollars, dated October 1st, 1868, and payable thirty years thereafter, bearing six per cent. interest, payable semi-annually, principal and interest payable in the city of New York, said bonds to be signed by the Governor, countersigned by the Treasurer, and sealed with the Great Seal of the State, and issued under the provisions of chapter 90, Revised Code: Provided, That said bonds shall only be issued on the surrender of a like amount of bonds of the State heretofore issued under "An act to amend the charter of the Chatham Railroad Company," ratified 15th of August, 1868, on which surrender the same amount of bonds delivered by said Company to the State under the said act shall be cancelled. Said subscription shall be preferred stock, and pay a dividend of six per cent. before any dividend shall be declared on the other stock.

SEC. 5. In order to provide for the payment of the interest which may accrue on the bonds issued as above mentioned there is hereby and shall be annually levied and collected a special tax of one-twentieth of one per cent. on the taxable property of the State, collectible and payable into the Treasury as other public taxes.

SEC. 6. In all meetings of stockholders of said Company the State shall, for and in behalf of its stock, be entitled to a vote equal to one-third of that cast by individual stockholders, and all the officers of said Company shall be elected by the stockholders as heretofore.

SEC. 7. The capital stock of the said Chatham Railroad Company is hereby increased to three millions two hundred thousand dollars.

SEC. 8. This bill shall be in force from its ratification.

[This Bill, having passed both Houses of the Legislature, is now a law.]

POLICIES ISSUED AS GOOD AS UNITED STATES BONDS.

POLICIES VALUABLE IN LIFE AS AT DEATH!

The BROOKLYN LIFE is the only Company in the country which guaranties a definite surrender-value to every Policy on which two or more annual premiums have been paid; this amount, in dollars and cents, is endorsed on every Policy issued. Should any Policy-holder become unable to pay his premiums, he can thus know the cash worth of the Policy at any time after two annual premiums have been paid.

This certainly is the greatest inducement and most tangible advantage ever accorded to parties insuring their lives.

Among the advantages offered by the BROOKLYN, which thoroughly evince the determination of the officers to make it the MOST LIBERAL Life Insurance Company in the United States, are:

1st TOTAL REMOVAL OF ALL RESTRICTIONS ON TRAVEL AND RESIDENCE. The Assured may travel or reside anywhere they choose, the world over, without extra premium or special permit.

2d. A Loan of one-third of the Premium to the Policy-Holder Annually.

3d. All Policies are non-forfeitable after two full annual premiums have been paid.

4th. Rates as low as are consistent with financial soundness, and less than those of almost all Companies which accommodate their assured with loans.

5th. Dividends annually (after second year) in cash. Dividends are divided on the CONTRIBUTION PLAN—the only equitable manner of dividing the earnings of a Life Insurance Company. The Contribution Plan was first conceived by Mr. D. P. Fackler, now Actuary of this Company and has been adopted by most of the best managed Life Companies in this country.

The BROOKLYN LIFE has paid and now pays to its Policy-holders LARGER DIVIDENDS than ever before paid by a Life Insurance Company!

6th. Promptitude in paying losses.

7th. No charge for policy or stamp.

The success which the "BROOKLYN" has achieved, fully exemplified in its rapid and healthful growth, is a convincing proof of the confidence reposed by the public in its soundness, integrity and liberality.

It is understood that neither of the claimants, Hunt, Jones or Menard, will be allowed to take a seat.

CONGRESS.

WASHINGTON, Dec 18, P. M.

SENATE.—Abbott introduced a bill for the payment of the claims of loyal men in the South.—It empowers Chase to appoint three Commissioners, who shall meet here and award the claims, not to exceed two million of dollars—proof of loyalty to be the same as exacted in the Quarte rmaster's Department.

Edmunds introduced a bill, repealing the admission of Georgia. The preamble states that the Legislature violated the 14th Amendment, in not purging itself of members ineligible under the 14th Article, and violated both the Constitution and preamble upon which reconstruction was founded, in expelling negroes. The bill revives the Military Government, and allows the present Constitution to operate, subject to the pleasure of Congress. It provides that the Legislature shall assemble, (those ineligible under the 14th Article to be excluded,) and that the Federal Courts shall have concurrent jurisdiction, when one party swears that justice cannot be had in the Provisional Courts.

The Judiciary Committee was directed to enquire whether removal of political disabilities, passed prior to the adoption of the 14th amendment, was now valid.

House.—Mr. Finney's death was announced and after some unimportant business, the House adjourned till Monday.

FROM RICHMOND.

RICHMOND, Dec. 18, P. M.

The farm of Ex-Gov. Wise, in Princes Ann County, so long held by the government, was on yesterday surrendered to the owner by order of the United States authorities.

For the Sentinel.

MR. EDITOR:—Will you be so kind as to publish, through the Sentinel, for the benefit of all whom it may concern, whether those who received licence, last June, are required to stand another examination for Superior Court licence. X

[No. By an act of the present Legislature, all who have heretofore obtained County Court licence are privileged to practice, without further examination or fee, in the Superior Courts.—ED.]

DROWNED.—Capt. Plummer, on the Wilmington, Charlotte and Rutherford Road, informs us that Mr. Rory McNair, of Lumberton, met his death Tuesday afternoon by walking into Lumber river. His feet became entangled in the bushes under the water, and he was drowned without the entire sinking of his body, which was recovered after remaining for two hours in its watery grave.

Mr. McNair leaves a family and many friends to deplore his untimely death, and, among the numerous good citizens of Lumberton, none stood higher than did the departed.—Wilmington Star, 17th.

REMOVAL OF POLITICAL DISABILITIES.—"Data," the Washington correspondent of the Baltimore Sun, says:

"A close canvass of the sentiments of members of Congress discloses a disposition to remove the disabilities of citizens in all the Southern States, and there is scarcely a doubt that at this session a bill will pass in both houses placing the several States upon an equal footing as to the elective franchise."

THE rapid advancement of "THE EQUITABLE" to the very front rank of American Life Insurance Companies, the unprecedented amount of its new business for the year ending September 30th, 1868, being over the large accumulation by it of EIGHT MILLIONS OF DOLLARS, together with an annual income of FIVE MILLIONS OF DOLLARS, afford the very best evidences of its popularity, success and reliability.

A brief comparison of the Society's business for the first nine years of its organization, will best illustrate its remarkable progress.

For the Sentinel.

HER NAME.

AFFECTIONATELY INSCRIBED TO HER.

Her name! ah! can I e'er forget that name!
The sweetest, gentlest name I ever have heard—
The softest name that falls from any tongue,
From bright-eyed, leping child to those whose brows
Are deeply furrowed by the weight of years!
And e'en fair nature lends her winning voice,
To whisper in the ears of listening stars
And streams and flowers, and birds and winds and skies,
In heaven-born tones that soft and gentle name;
For on the banks of many a murmuring stream,
On emerald meadows 'mid the hills,
Or in the lone secluded mountain dell
Our Father's own Almighty hand is lost
To write that name upon the loveliest flower
That blooms beneath the early summer's sky,
And I can I forget the one who gave
That lovely name so precious unto me
I ne'er have known a truer, purer heart;
And oh! I would she knew — , but language fails
To tell how, e'en when by her own dear hand
My heart was filled with deep and bitter grief
At blight of early love I still could dream
Her one whose life was e'er so free from guile
She seemed too pure for mortal life and love.
May Heaven wish sunshine gild her future years
And guardian angels hover round her way!

THE Sentinel.

PUBLISHED AT THE

CAPITAL OF THE STATE,

Daily, Semi-Weekly and Weekly.

NEW ARRANGEMENT.

The RALEIGH SENTINEL having passed under the Editorial management of the undersigned, it will, from the present date, be conducted by him.

It will be the zealous and fearless advocate of the CONSTITUTION of the United States, seeking to bring the people back to their ancient reverence for that immortal instrument, and to restore the policy of the country to that honored standard, as the only guarantee of National prosperity.

It will do justice to the men and measures of the present day, whenever they may merit it, but it will unsparingly lash and denounce all who set themselves up in opposition to the Federal Constitution, and hold up to the public indignation corruption and imbecility in high places.

It will ardently seek the promotion of the best interests of North Carolina,—moral, educational, material and political.

THE LATEST NEWS

From every quarter, both by mail and telegraph, will be carefully collated and presented.

Full and correct market and financial reports will be given.

And, in one word, no effort will be spared to make the SENTINEL, in all respects, a reliable
